Dear Festival Ballet Providence community,

The Providence Country Day School is pleased to announce an exciting new partnership with Festival Ballet Providence School beginning in the 2021-2022 school year.

The PCD-Festival partnership focuses on academically talented students at the intermediate and advanced levels of the Festival Ballet Providence School. In this partnership, FBP students are eligible for awards up to $6,000 per year for dancers in the advanced core program and up to $3,000 per year for dancers at the intermediate core level. Awards are renewable through a student’s graduation at PCD, provided that the student meets academic, citizenship, and participatory requirements at PCD and remains a member of the FBP School. Should the student fail to meet these PCD eligibility requirements or should their FBP program level change, a student’s award would be adjusted for the following school year. Students participating in the PCD-Festival partnership may also qualify for need-based financial aid by completing a separate application through School and Student Services (SSS).

To apply, students must complete the PCD application process by February 1, which includes timely submission of all application materials and an interview with a member of the Admissions Team. In addition to their PCD application materials, students will also need to submit a letter of recommendation from their FBP instructor or director.

I encourage you to call the PCD Admissions Office to learn more about this partnership and our admissions process. You can reach me directly at 401-438-5170 x105 or parsons@providencecountryday.org. I look forward to meeting you all soon!

Sincerely,
